

“ Investments in accessible transport infrastructure and services pays off in terms of environmental costs since accessibility enables people to use sustainable transport modes, and thus to save money, energy, harmful emissions and space

After the introduction of cycle transport improvements in Ústí nad Labem, it was estimated that pollutant emissions decreased by 9,4% (as traffic volume of cars decreased by the same proportion)

Sources

CIVITAS INSIGHT-Accessible mobility: enabling independent living for all
Cycle Transport Improvements in Ústí nad Labem-MERT