

“ Road and Parking pricing

An economic concept regarding charges applied for the use of roads or parking facilities; the aims of such charges are to discourage driving and reduce congestion while generating revenues for further infrastructure investments

In Bologna the pricing and monitoring policy for parking generated revenues for about 11€mIn in 2011. 56% of surveyed people expressed their positive opinion about paying as a way to reduce congestion