

“ Environmental zones

Areas where restrictions or differentiated access fees apply to vehicles of different size or conforming to specific European emission standards, with the aim of reducing pollution levels (generally in historic centers)

Aalborg implemented an environmental zone with restricted access for heavy goods vehicles (over 3,5t). The share of trucks with EURO IV (or better) increased from 28% to 54%