

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration

Draft agenda

Joint session of the U.S. Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and the European Commission, Directorate General for Mobility and Transport

“Sharing innovative, tested practices in sustainable urban mobility in EU and US cities”

Wednesday 10 January 2018, 2:15 – 5:00 PM (registration open from 2:00 PM),

Venue: TRB2018, Walter E. Washington Convention Center, room 306

The session is moderated by Martin Knopp, FHWA and Henriette van Eijl, European Commission.

2:15 – 2:30 PM Introduction

Welcoming remarks by Martin Knopp, Associate Administrator for FHWA Office of Operations and Robert Missen, Head of Unit, European Commission, Directorate-General for Transport and Mobility (DG MOVE)

2:30 – 3:30 PM Round table - Part I

1. Karen Vancluysen, POLIS: Key policy challenges in the EU and game changers in urban mobility
2. Linda Bailey, NACTO: Towards a paradigm shift in urban mobility and the NACTO "Blueprint for Autonomous Urbanism"
3. Siegfried Rupprecht, Rupprecht Consult: Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans – the European approach to an integrated set of policies and measures
4. David Harris, U.S. Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and Gwo-Wei Tomg U.S. Federal Transit Administration (FTA): US DOT Future Mobility Innovation Deployment Grants
5. Jeff Marootian, Washington D.C. District Department of Transportation: Preparing for a new mobility environment
6. Michael Glotz-Richter, City of Bremen, Germany: Electrification of public transport in cities – results and lessons learned from the EU ELIPTIC project
7. Scott Fraser, City of Toronto: Monitoring and evaluation strategy of the King Street transit priority corridor pilot
8. Richard van der Wulp, City of Rotterdam, Netherlands: Rotterdam's approach to electromobility and results, with a focus on charging points
9. Michael Repogle, New York City Department of Transportation: NYC's Vision Zero initiatives
10. Karen Vancluysen, POLIS: New modelling approaches taking account of the congestion reduction potential of cycling and walking – results and lessons learned from the EU FLOW project
11. Tilly Chang and Drew Cooper, San Francisco County Transportation Authority: Big data for new mobility services

3:30 – 3:50 PM Break (a coffee stand can be found in the conference center)

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration

3:50 – 4:20 PM Round table – Part II (continued)

12. Giuseppe Liguori, City of Bologna, Italy: New technologies for tracking data of cyclists and pedestrians and apps to inform active travel policies – results and lessons learned from the EU TRACE project
13. Benjamin de la Peña, City of Seattle: Should there be a New Mobility User’s Bill of Rights?
14. Marcel Meeuwissen, City of Enschede, Netherlands: Apps to encourage behavioral change in favor of sustainable modes – results and lessons learned from the EU EMPOWER project
15. Leah Treat, City of Portland: Civic support for vehicle electrification with innovative public-private initiatives
16. Andrea Gold, University of Texas at Austin, Center for Transportation Research: Texas Innovation Alliance: A statewide innovation model with a close-up on freight
17. Bernard Gyergyay, Rupperecht Consult: ‘Automation-ready’ transport models and road infrastructure for the coexistence of automated and conventional vehicles – EU CoEXist project
18. Allen Greenberg, U.S. Federal Highway Administration (FHWA): Global Benchmarking Study Shared Mobility

4:20 – 4:55 PM Exploring opportunities for future EU-US cooperation – Open Discussion

4:55 – 5:00 PM Closing words by the U.S. Federal Highway Administration and the European Commission

For further information, please contact Hana Maier (Hana.Maier@dot.gov), Henriette van Eijl (Henriette.VAN-EIJL@ec.europa.eu) and Marcel Braun (m.braun@rupprecht-consult.eu).