

“ People with reduced mobility (PRM)

People who face barriers when walking, cycling, or using public transport. According to experts’ estimations* about 1/3 of the European population consists of people with reduced mobility

In 2014 Transport for London released the 4th edition of the “Big Red Book”, including a guidance to bus drivers to help them improve journeys for bus passengers with accessibility needs. The guidance has been issued to all 24,000 bus drivers in London

* Access and Inclusion - Improving Transport Accessibility for All, CEMT/CM (2006) 7 FINAL, p. 3

Sources

CIVITAS INSIGHT-Accessible mobility: enabling independent living for all www.transportforall.org.uk/news/the-new-edition-of-the-big-red-book-is-out